

ACCORDIA

The Italy Lectures 2021-2022

Institute of Classical Studies
School of Advanced Study
University of London

Thirty-fourth Series

Lectures commence at 17.30

Institute of Archaeology
University College
University of London

2021

TUESDAY October 19 at 17:30

Funerary networks in central Italy c.1000–31 BC
Ulla Rajala, University of Stockholm

TUESDAY November 16 at 17:30

Megalithic monuments in Salento, Apulia, southeast Italy
Claudio Giardino, University of the Salento

TUESDAY December 7 at 17:30

Accordia Anniversary Lecture

Early Rome within the Archaic Mediterranean:
mobility and identity
Guy Bradley, University of Cardiff

2022

TUESDAY January 18 at 17:30

Activities, spaces and social organisation at the Bronze Age fortified settlement of Coppa Nevigata, southern Italy
Giulia Recchia, Sapienza University of Rome

TUESDAY February 22 at 17:30

The Iron Age and Archaic settlement of Crustumium on the Tiber:
results of the 2006–2018 seasons
Peter Attema, University of Groningen

TUESDAY March 15 at 17:30

Northern Adriatic coastal landscapes:
Bronze Age Aquileia and its role in the making of Adriatic connectivity
Elisabetta Borgna, University of Udine

TUESDAY March 29 at 17:30

The politics of community destruction:
Poggio Civitate and the crisis of the Archaic period in central Italy
Anthony Tuck, University of Massachusetts Amherst

TUESDAY May 10 at 17:30

No country for rich men?
Exploring urbanisation and non-elite societies in the Iron Age Po Valley
Lorenzo Zamboni, University of Milan

Due to the ongoing pandemic, the lectures will take place via Zoom. If the situation changes at any stage in the New Year, we will try to return to 'real' lectures in lecture rooms. In the meantime, if you wish to attend on Zoom, please email Ruth Whitehouse at accresearch20@gmail.com and you will be sent the registration details for each lecture

